LOCAL MENTION.

The Lake Lodore ice company is sending forty carloads of ice a day, to the houses of the Erie Railroad Co., an order for 10,000 tons. It is shipped Hornell, N. Y., via Carbondale and Jefferson Branch. To fill the order cars will be required, and at the rate of shipment named, it will take nine days to fill the order.

T. B. Clark, of North Main street, gave a banquet to a party of his personal friends on Wednesday evening last, which was an event of unusual social importance. The company comprised: Edward Jermyn, of Scranton; Levi A. Dutton, of Carbondale; C. H. Dorrger, of White Mills, and Dr. Charles Brady, E. B. Hardenbergh, A. T. Arle, L. J. Dorflinger, C. J. Smith, E. T. Brown, Wm. G. Blakney and Thomas M. Fuller, of Honesdale.

The gross receipts for Scranton's Lake Lincoln fund amounted to $11,385.85—more than a thousand dollars excess of what the committee started to raise. But the expenses of the campaign and the cost of the articles sold amounted up to $1,036.84, leaving a net balance for the construction of the lake of $10,369.01.

On Friday of last week the directors of the Niagara Creamery company of Supt Pleasant, all went to Scranton the guests of David Spruks, the Lackawanna avenue commission merchant. A banquet was given them at Hotel Rmyn. Those who attended were: E. and J. J. Perham, C. H. Spencer, M. Bigelow, F. H. Kennedy, S. P. Beck, J. E. O'Neill. The Chicago Stock Company, one of the largest and best repertoire theatrical aggregations now on the road, is announced to fill a week's engagement at the Lyric Theatre in the near future. Dairy Farm, "The Little Grey Lady," Home Folks, "The Genesee of the Hills," and "An Enemy to the King" are among the fine plays that will be offered during their week stand in Honesdale. The company numbers 25 people and they carry all of their own scenery and stage effects, besides several canines and a horse. Playing at low popular prices, this company ought to do a paying business here.

A positive proof that the people of Honesdale want good clean vaudeville and motion pictures is shown by the patronage the Lyric Theatre is receiving this week. The vaudeville bill, which consists of Mack Howard, Comedy Jugler; Leroy & Walby, Singers and Dancers, and Remo Omar, Whirling Dervish, is one of the most pleasing programs that the management could possibly arrange. No doubt large audiences will greet this company of clever people after they return from their Hawley and White Mills trip. Afternoon and evening performances will take place on Friday and Saturday of this week, at 2:30 and 7:30. Two performances are given each evening and only one in the afternoon. Next week a complete change in program, all new vaudeville acts and another series of humorous and educational motion pictures.

Supt. N. R. Buller, of the state fish hatchery, at Mount Pleasant, will receive a consignment of 200,000 silver-sided salmon eggs this week from the United States hatchery, at Baker, Washington. These eggs will be hatched here, and in time will be planted in the Delaware and Susquehanna rivers. At a certain age after planting, the fish migrate to tide water, where they remain until they are four years of age, when they return to their native waters to spawn. The average weight of these fish at four years is about five pounds. The Delaware and its tributaries, in this region, in time should be the banner fishing grounds of the state, provided we can keep them reasonably free from the pollution of acid factories, gas works and sewage.

The Business Men's Association will hold a meeting at the City Hall Friday evening. All members are requested to be in attendance, as officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

The father returned to his home on the 4:30 o'clock train, leaving the following description of the boy: Age 15 years, weight about 150 pounds, black hair and blue eyes. He wore a brown overcoat, brown shoes, black stockings and blue shirt.

Frank P. Woodward, the veteran journalist, who is now ruralizing at the old family homestead at Hoadleys, with a print shop outfit to keep him company, paid THE CITIZEN office a fraternal visit on Monday last. Frank's eye for news has not lost any of its brightness, nor his ready pen any of its cunning, in all the strenuous years they have both been in use.

Keyes celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary at their home last Friday night, with an elegant three course dinner. Among the presents was a large number of carnations. After the dinner, the evening was spent in an enjoyable social time, the guests departing at a late hour with many wishes for health and happiness to their agreeable host and hostess."

Ex-County Treasurer Charles F. Rockwell, in sending a two years' advance renewal of his subscription to THE CITIZEN, favors us with the following interesting bit of his personal history: "I have been a reader of the paper more than sixty years, from away back to the days when it was called 'The Democrat,' when I lived in Milford, where I was born in 1825. There was no Republican party then; the party names being Whig and Democrat, and then Pike county was called the banner Democratic county, and I was a Whig. I cast my first presidential vote at Lackawaxen, in 1848, for General Taylor; second in 1852, for General Scott; third, for General Fremont, and fourth, for Abraham Lincoln. I have voted at presidential elections sixteen times; all anti-Democratic except twice; once for my first benefactor, Horace Greeley, and once for Grover Cleveland, the last Democratic president, and it will probably be my last Democratic vote."

OBITUARY.

Miss Kate A. Cavanaugh, died very suddenly at her home, 213 Stephen avenue, Scranton, on Sunday evening last. She is survived by her mother and nine brothers and sisters, including a brother Daniel, living in Hawley. Miss Cavanaugh was for a long time forelady at the Petersburg silk mill, and a large circle of friends will mourn her sudden death.

The remains of Daniel Bigelow, who died in a hospital at New Orleans, arrived at Pleasant Mount, on Monday night, March 1st, and were taken to the home of his brother Henry. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning, at Rock Lake church. He was buried by the side of his mother, in the Rock Lake cemetery. His brothers, William and John, accompanied the remains from New Orleans. No account of his sickness has yet been learned.

Mrs. Jane Snyder died at the home of her daughter, Miss Mary, in Hawley, on Wednesday of last week, after three days of prostration from a stroke of apoplexy. Mrs. Snyder, whose maiden name was Jane Womelsdorf, was born in Reading, but had resided in Hawley for more than sixty years. She was married to Abram Snyder in 1842, and became the mother of eight children, seven of whom survive her, among them being Mrs. Samuel K. Dodge, of this place. Mr. Snyder, her husband, who died forty-five years ago, was a brother of the late J. B. Snyder, formerly a Justice of the Peace, of Hawley, and for many years court crier of Lackawanna county, with residence in Scranton.

Henry H. Roe died at his home, 1209 Main street, at 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, March 3d, 1909, of heart failure, superinduced by pneumonia, with which he was attacked about a week previously. Next to Edwin F. Torrey, of the Honesdale National Bank, Mr. Roe was at the time of his death the oldest native born resident of Honesdale. He was a son of John F. Roe, who came from Long Island to Honesdale in 1828 and kept store in the old "Tabernacle," the first building erected in Honesdale at the forks of the West Branch and Dyberry. The Tabernacle store was removed the next year to the Foster building opposite the now Hotel Wayne, and in 1833, John F. Roe built the house on Main street, and store corner of Main and High streets, which he occupied during his life-time and to which his son succeeded. Henry H. Roe was born August 4, 1832. His education was acquired in the Honesdale public schools and academy, and at Wyoming Seminary, which institution he entered in 1852. His father was a man of large business interests, and on the completion of his studies the subject of this sketch entered his employ, remaining, with various advancements, until after his father's death, when the settlement and largely the management of the estate devolved upon him, and occupied his time for the balance of his life. Mr. Roe was never married. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. W. Weston, of Honesdale, and Mrs. H. F. Atherton, of Scranton; and one half-brother, John, of Los Angeles, Cal. The funeral services will be held on Saturday next, March 6th, at two o'clock P. M., Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Swift in charge. Interment in Glen Dyberry cemetery.

DISSENSION AT PRINCETON.

Theological Students Ask For "More Explicit" Instruction. Princeton, N. J., March 3.—Dissensions between the students and faculty of the Princeton Theological seminary have come to a climax, and the board of trustees, to whom the students sent a request that certain courses in the curriculum be made "more intelligible," has referred the petition to the faculty.

The disagreement began when the majority of the first and second year students, seventy-five in all, drew up resolutions asking that the courses in Hebrew, exegesis, theism and New Testament be made more explicit and that a course in Christian sociology be inserted.

President Patton gives the course in theism. He regards the action of the students as "highly discourteous." Dr. Patton said: "Whenever we shall require the aid of the students in conducting our courses here we shall ask for it. The seminary is not a Sunday school. It is a place for the study of scientific theology. Naturally our courses are exacting."

The Swiss Cabinet. Seven members, each of whom draws $2,500 a year, constitute the Swiss cabinet.

A Scottish Superstition. It is a general belief in Scotland that if a quarrel happens on the coast where herring is caught and blood be shed by violence the herring then goes right away from the coast and does not put in an appearance again until the next season.

Pike's Peak. The topmost solid point of Pike's peak has been found to be precisely 14,100 feet above the level of the sea.

Grand Jury Report.

The grand jury have finished their work for the March term, and made the following report:

We recommend that Wellbach gas burners be supplied throughout the Court House, where needed; also that the room containing the ballot boxes be kept locked hereafter; that six common wooden chairs be purchased for use in the jail, and two rockers for the women's cells; also two cuspidors for the corridor of the jail. We also recommend that the Sheriff's barn be reshingled, which work we consider necessary in order to save the building; also report that the wash-house roof needs repairing or reshingling, and that the front part needs eave troughs to carry the water from the walk; that the rear wall of the Court House closest needs attention, as it is giving away, and is liable to damage the building; that the east gable and window of the jail require attention, and the grading needs painting.

The Grand Jury found the following true bills:

Com. v. Thomas Quinney. Larceny. Joseph Ackerman, pros. Com. v. Mervin E. Taft. 1st count, assault and battery; 2d, aggravated assault and battery; 3d, same; 4th, assault and battery with intent to murder. The jury approved of the report of the viewers for a bridge between Clinton township, Wayne county, and Susquehanna county, at Forest City.

PRIZE ESSAYS.

The approaching completion of the High School buildings will soon necessitate the grading and arrangement of the school property grounds. No one is more interested in having this work properly done than the pupils who are to use them, and no landscape gardener could attempt the task without consulting them. In order to stimulate suggestion on this point THE CITIZEN offers the scholars of the High School two prizes of $1.00 each for the best two essays on "The Best Way to Arrange the New School House Grounds," the competition to close April 1st. The articles, which must not exceed four hundred words in length, are not to be signed, but the name of the writer must be written on a separate slip, and enclosed in an envelope with the essay. The contributions will be numbered and submitted to competent judges who will decide on their respective merits. The winning essays with the names of the authors will appear in the first number of THE CITIZEN following the award.

Our Reclaimed Land. Since 1902, when the federal reclamation act was passed, the government has added 5,000,000 acres to the country's habitable land, and these, added to the 7,200,000 reclaimed from the desert before that year, make an increase of 12,000,000 acres in the country's habitable area, an average of 2,000,000 acres per year.

GLACIA CALLA TO ACT AGAIN

Woman Who Disclosed Brother's Murder Comes From Seclusion.

New York, March 3.—After figuring in various sensational episodes, the latest of which was a year ago, when she led in an attempt to extradite her husband from France for the murder of her brother, Mrs. Paul H. Roy, better known as Glacia Calla, the "American beauty," has emerged from seclusion and will return to the stage at the Circle theater, where she will play the little role in "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge."

Her marriage to Paul Emile Roy occurred in Boston on Oct. 7, 1907. Roy is now in France, to which country he fled after the murder of George A. Carkins at Newington, N. H., on Jan. 2 of last year.

Mrs. Roy, or Glacia Calla, was in her home on Jan. 2, 1908, when her husband shot down her brother. At first it was given out by the woman that her brother had committed suicide.

This for a time was believed, but by the time it was discovered that Carkins was shot twice in the back his murderer was safe out of the country. The discovery was not made until the body was disinterred following a statement of the truth by the woman, who sought to have her husband punished.

DIARY IN MURDER TRIAL.

Artilleryman Accused of Killing Wife Made Telltale Entries.

New Bedford, Mass., March 3.—Pages from the diary of Artilleryman William C. Howard, on trial for the murder of his wife, furnished the most important evidence introduced by the state.

The pages contained notes in Howard's handwriting relating to the compression of the carotid arteries, a method employed, the government maintains, to accomplish the death of the soldier's wife. The diary was found in Howard's locker at Fort Rodman.

Other pages of the diary contained the names of thirteen young women whom Howard described as his "sweethearts." One of the names was that of Grace Sturtevant, on whose account, the state claims, Howard made away with his wife. On another page was a mock will, by which Miss Sturtevant bequeathed her estate to Howard, who in turn "appointed" her as his "wife."

Inspector Frank Sylvia testified that he had heard Howard make threats against his wife for informing the police that he shot Edward Dewhurst.

NO DIVISION OF FLEET.

President Calls It "Folly" in Message to General Porter.

New York, March 3.—President Roosevelt sent the following telegram to General Horace Porter, president of the Navy league, in connection with the part which the league took in the recent reception of the returning battleship fleet at Hampton Roads: I wish all success to the Navy league that it will work successfully for the creation of a public sentiment which will insist that the governmental representatives of the public in both the legislative and executive departments build up the navy and keep it at the highest point of efficiency.

We need a thorough understanding by the public. The essential need is an American naval policy including such elevating knowledge as will prove the incidental folly of attempting to divide the battleship fleet between the Atlantic and Pacific and will condemn without reserve those shortsighted men who oppose the navy and the security it affords and seek to make us build only small ships of an outgrowing type.

OLGA ROOSEVELT'S LEGACY.

President's Cousin Gets $200,000 Under Grandmother's Will.

The Boys' club of New York receives $100,000, the income of which is to be used "for the benefit of deserving poor boys of the city, with particular reference to finding positions for them and giving them a start in life."

Dartmouth college receives $25,000, Bowdoin $25,000 and seven New York institutions $10,000 each.

London, March 3.—Queen Alexandra is suffering from a severe cold and cannot attend the court at Buckingham palace which the king will hold this evening. It is announced that the queen's illness is not serious, but weather conditions render exposure dangerous, there being another heavy fall of snow in London.
